5 IMPORTANT TIPS FOR YOUR FUNDRAISER

1. PUT THE CARDS IN THE KIDS' HANDS (excludes pure flyer sales)

-The most effective way to sell cards is to put the cards in the kids' hands. If someone was trying to sell you popcorn, would you be more likely to buy it without sampling it first, wait a week, have it delivered to your house, and then pay for it or would you rather buy the popcorn on the spot out of the person's inventory after sampling it first? Cards are typically a point of purchase transaction.

2. KEEP TRACK OF HOW MANY CARDS EACH PERSON HAS

-We have included a card sign out sheet at the back of this packet to assist you. With a proper system of accountability in place that keeps track of how many cards each person has, the kids will be less likely to lose cards and you can hold them accountable if they do. Even the best fundraisers sometimes don't do as well as they could because there is no system of tracking who has how many cards.

3. USE THE FLYER/CITIES LIST

-We have cards in about 200 different cities in California. This will enable friends and family that don't live in the city you are selling cards for to still support your cause by purchasing a card that fits their area. You can order cards for any city on our cities list at any time simply by calling or emailing us. The flyer is a good sales tool for collecting out of city orders. Our cities list is also included at the back of this packet. Typically, out of city orders will increase your sales by 5-10% and is especially effective for smaller groups.

4. KEEP THE TIMEFRAME OF THE FUNDRAISER RELATIVELY SHORT

-Creating a deadline for when the participants have to return money and cards will create a sense of urgency while still allowing them to sell as many as they can. Fundraisers that drag on for months are more likely to do poorly because the kids can forget about the fundraiser, lose motivation, and are more likely to lose cards the longer you keep them in their hands. Our most successful fundraisers typically last about 3 weeks.

5. KEEP THE KIDS MOTIVATED & SET GOALS

- Explain clearly to your participants what it is you are raising money for and why. This will make them better salespeople and give them the motivation they need to reach their goal. Having a finite goal for each person (typically at least 3-10 cards) will let them know what you expect and is usually more effective than telling them to sell as many as possible.
